WSP USA Jumps 4 Spots in ENR's Ranking of the Top 500 Design Firms

The firm ranked eighth in Engineering News-Record's 2018 list of U.S. design firms.

NEW YORK, April 26, 2019 — Leading engineering and professional services firm WSP USA is ranked eighth in Engineering News-Record's (ENR) 2019 “Top 500 Design Firms” list, up from number 12 in 2018 based on regional revenue. The rankings are published in the April 29/May 6 issue of ENR and are available here.

Listed as number one amongst the “Top 100 Pure Designers” for the second consecutive year, WSP was also ranked fourth in transportation, ninth in power, 14th in water and 18th in general building. ENR also ranks firms in a global category, according to total design revenue, regardless of where revenue is generated, as well as in an international category, based on design revenue generated outside of companies’ home countries. WSP ranked sixth in ENR's 2018 list of the “Top 150 Global Design Firms,” and fourth in ENR's 2018 “Top 225 International Design Firms” list.
