

An overview of all relevant references, the Danish Environmental Protection Agency's projects and work reports

Project title	Applier	Year	Description
Rental property in Horsens built from recycled materials.	K. Moller	1994	The Recycled Houses in Horsens A description of the use of recycled materials in Horsens.
Recycling of roofing coverings, Environmental Protection Agency's Work Report 44	Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency	1994	The Recycled Houses in Copenhagen Reporting of project on cleaning methods and reuse of roof covering in connection with the recycled apartments in Copenhagen.
'Genbrugshus' in Odense – report on the construction of the recycled building in Georgsgade, Odense Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency 78.	Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency	1995	The Recycled Houses in Odense The report deals with the construction of buildings, as well as planning and studies in connection with the implementation of the pilot project, including procurement, reprocessing and installation of recycled materials.
Demonstration project: "Det Genanvendte Hus", Worker report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency No. 79	Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency	1995	The Recycled Houses in Copenhagen A reporting of tenders and execution of construction. The report also contains a summary of the project's other phases.
'Det Genanvendte Hus' – cleaner technology Work Report No. 34, Main Report Appendix report 1: Method description for assessment of the resource and environmental aspects of building elements Annex Report 2: Comparative standard Annex Summary 3: Registration of health and safety at work	Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency	1996	The Recycled Houses in Copenhagen The report contains a summary and conclusions, recommendations and explanations of the results of the resource and environmental assessment.

Annex report 4: Analysis of waste production and management Annex report 5: Energy evaluation of production Annex report 6: Environmental and health and safety assessments.			The information in the main report is elaborated in 6 annex reports.
Recycling efforts in the construction sector. Information from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency, No. 10	Work report from the Danish Environmental Protection Agency	1996	The report summarizes the results of the projects that, with the support of the Recycling Council, have been carried out as part of the overall Danish recycling effort in the building and construction area in the period 1986-1995. The starting point is the main areas of the effort, which are mapping, development, demonstration and implementation.